

Submerged Underwater Vehicle (SUV)

Now here's an interesting series of pictures. That's an SUV slipping silently beneath the waves after a botched attempt to launch a jet ski. What happened? Not sure, but I'd bet a dozen donuts that this, like almost all mishaps, was 100% preventable.

One thing I can tell you ... 'ol Davy Jones is cruisin' around the ocean floor in style now. Folks, don't get suckered into thinkin' that just 'cause you've got a truck or an SUV, that you can go anywhere and do anything. Remember, the bigger they are, the faster they sink.
